

CA Satya Shiva Ryali

Founder and Managing Partner at RVR and Associates, Chartered Accountants

Hyderabad, Telangana, India

Summary

Qualified as a Chartered Accountant in 2016, is currently a fellow member of the ICAI. Developed specialization in direct tax, particularly tax litigation. Known for his exceptional capability in securing long-pending refunds from the CPC, track record of obtaining substantial client benefits, even under challenging circumstances.

Early in his career, worked with the Income Tax Department as a Business Analyst at the CPC in Bangalore. This role provided an invaluable opportunity to work closely with senior IRS officers, which made me to gain in-depth knowledge of the department's e-filing systems, digital transformation of tax laws, and the complex processing flow of ITRs.

Following the tenure at the CPC, joined two of the world's leading consultancy firms, first at a Big 6 firm and later with a Big 4. Distinguished professionalism and rapport with the tax department have made him a trusted advisor and a distinguished practitioner in the field.

Founder and Managing Partner at RVR and Associates.

Handling cases independently, conducting in-depth research, and preparing well-structured case papers. Hands-on experience in resolving cases often involved going the extra mile to uncover innovative solutions. This period further refined expertise in tax litigation and solidified reputation for achieving successful outcomes in challenging scenarios.

Tata Consultancy Services

Business Analyst

September 2016 - September 2018 (2 years 1 month)

Bengaluru Area, India

Early in his career, I worked with the Income Tax Department as a Business Analyst at the CPC in Bangalore. TCS has provided a great opportunity for me to work with Income Tax department at very early stage of my career. This role provided me with the invaluable opportunity to work closely with senior IRS officers, where I gained in-depth knowledge of the department's e-filing systems, digital transformation of tax laws, and the complex processing flow of Income Tax Returns (ITRs). During my nearly two years at the CPC, I have contributed to key discussions on system changes, process optimizations, and had high-level involvement in strategic developments within the department.

Akasam and associates

Article Assistant

April 2013 - September 2016 (3 years 6 months)

Bengaluru, Karnataka, India

Professional journey started with an internship at Akasam and Associates, Bangalore, where I learnt various skills in direct tax litigation. During my tenure, I had the unique opportunity to represent clients before tax authorities, gaining firsthand experience in handling tax appeals and preparing meticulous appeal documentation. It also involved implementing strategic practices for tax reduction.
